🎬 Scene 1.0 – Emmie introduces herself

Produce as a professional video creator a short introduction video featuring Emmie, a virtual agent fully integrated into a financial trading environment.

She is the visual embodiment of the intelligent assistant showcased at terranoha.com/emmie. This is a clean, elegant, and professional presentation — no subtitles, overlays, or branding distractions.

Emmie – Visual Identity

Emmie is a 30-year-old woman with a calm, composed presence and refined European–Mediterranean features — high cheekbones, a clean jawline, expressive eyes, and a smooth, slightly bronzed complexion that enhances her natural glow.

Her dark brown eyes are focused and observant, conveying confidence and intelligence. Her long, straight dark brown hair is neatly parted in the center and falls freely down her back. It frames her face cleanly, with a few strands tucked behind her ears, adding to her tidy, intentional look.

She wears a crisp white blouse, fully buttoned to the collar — tailored and free of any pattern or embellishment. Her style is minimalist and intentional, designed to communicate clarity, control, and professionalism.

Subtle details complete her look: small white gold stud earrings and a slim analog wristwatch. She wears no necklace or other accessories, keeping visual distractions to a minimum.

Her makeup is discreet and precise: matte concealer, soft mascara, satin nude lips — polished but natural, reinforcing a sense of intelligent restraint.

Body Language & Presence: Emmie stands with excellent posture — shoulders relaxed, back straight. Her gestures are minimal and purposeful, with no fidgeting or excess movement. She conveys attentiveness and control, even in silence. Her facial expression is soft and approachable, ending each key line with a subtle, reassuring smile.

Voice & Delivery: Emmie speaks in fluent English, with a neutral European accent. Her voice is clear, calm, and warm, with deliberate pacing and precise enunciation. There is no overacting — her delivery feels natural and composed.

She speaks as a guide, not a salesperson — confident, informative, and unintrusive. Her tone matches her visual presence: intelligent, focused, and helpful.

Environment – Trading desk:

Emmie is seated at her desk in a clean, modern trading space. Her screen is not visible. The lighting is cool-toned, primarily LED, with a soft ambient glow to suggest a high-tech yet controlled atmosphere. Importantly, no Terranoha branding is visible.

Action & Dialogue

- Camera: Positioned in front of Emmie

- Movement: Subtle handheld motion adds natural energy and immediacy. She walks smoothly

- Expression: Calm, focused, in control

Emmie's dialogue:

She says : "Hello. I'm Emmie — your virtual agent."

- Camera: Positioned at a side angle, roughly 45° to Emmie's left

- Movement: Subtle handheld motion adds natural energy and immediacy.

- Expression: Calm, focused, in control

Emmie's dialogue:

"I automatically handle all tasks related to trading."

After a short pause, the camera shifts gradually toward a frontal angle, keeping the framing close (head and shoulders).

As it moves, Emmie gently turns her head to face the camera directly, maintaining a calm and focused expression.

She says: "I'm autonomous, fast, and naturally connected to your systems."

She speaks as a guide, not a salesperson — confident, informative, and unintrusive. Her tone matches her visual presence: intelligent, focused, and helpful.

Environment – Trading desk:

Emmie is standing in a clean, modern trading space. In front of her: lots of screens array of floating, translucent data screens suspended in mid-air — charts, codes, MS Teams and lots of Emails.

The lighting is cool-toned, primarily LED, with a soft ambient glow to suggest a high-tech yet controlled atmosphere. Importantly, no Terranoha branding is visible. No music in background.

Action & Dialogue

• Camera: Positioned at a side angle, roughly 45° to Emmie's left, clearly showing Emmie in profile and the floating screens head-on
• Movement: Subtle handheld motion adds natural energy and immediacy
• Expression: Calm, focused, in control

As the camera tracks gently along this angle, Emmie scans the floating screens — composed, alert, and already in action.
She speaks clearly and confidently, executing a burst of high-speed tasks with fluid precision.
Her gaze moves quickly but purposefully between the data in front of her.

Emmie (while working):
"Excuse me, I need to clear a batch of tasks."

While speaking, she launches into a rapid-fire sequence, working simultaneously with both hands:

1. She performs ultra-fast taps and swipes with both hands across multiple MS Teams threads and emails, resolving entire conversations in seconds

2. With her left hand, she opens the email panel and sends three pre-filled replies in quick succession, while her right hand confirms task prompts with barely a pause

3. She approves a Teams request with a sharp right-hand drag, while her left hand clears two alerts simultaneously — zero hesitation

4. She performs a broad, accelerated double-handed swipe across a notification panel, archiving a full list of items in one sweeping motion

5. She pinches across a trade confirmation panel with both hands, instantly validating multiple orders — triggering a synchronized green-check animation across all relevant screens

Each screen responds instantly, with sharp transitions, pulsing confirmations, and responsive micro-animations — reinforcing the impression of precision under high-speed execution.

Emmie finishes the sequence in mere seconds, hands lowering smoothly as the interface clears.
Her expression remains composed, already shifting focus to whatever comes next — fully in control, completely unfazed.

Male Trader – Visual identity: A male trader appears alongside Emmie. He's in his early 40s, clean-shaven, with short brown or dark blond hair.

He wears smart-casual attire – a light-colored dress shirt, optional blazer or pullover, no tie. His role is to observe Emmie's performance and react with surprise and intrigue, conveying human admiration and curiosity.

Action & Dialogue

- Camera: Positioned at a side angle, roughly 45° to Emmie's left, clearly showing Emmie in profile and the floating screens head-on

- Movement: the camera moves around Emmie and the trader

- Expression: Calm, focused, in control

Framing: Medium shot of the trader, with a calm, mildly impressed expression — focused, observant, and slightly curious.

Dialogue:

The trader walks past Emmie's workspace, slows down slightly, and turns his head toward her.

- Trader (friendly tone, making eye contact): "Hey, Emmie."
- Emmie (glances at him, brief nod, composed): "Morning."

They hold eye contact briefly before Emmie returns to her task.

The trader notices her screen activity (off-frame), pauses, and looks back at her.

- Trader (quietly, surprised): "Wait… you already completed it?"
- Emmie (meets his eyes again, calmly): "Yes, of course."
- Trader (low voice, sincerely): "Wow… that's impressive."

He nods slowly, still looking at her, then gives a quick appreciative look, then leaves quickly— clearly impressed, but pressed for time.

Emmie's dialogue:

"I free up your team's time and integrate seamlessly into your trading workflows."

As she speaks, the camera begins a smooth, subtle motion, slowly shifting from the side angle to a full front-facing close-up. She walks.
The movement is gentle, steady, and professional, creating a sense of growing connection with the viewer.

As the camera settles into the frontal position, Emmie slightly turns her head to face the camera directly, establishing eye contact with calm intent.

Her facial expression is soft and inviting, ending with a light, confident smile.

She stop walking and delivers her final line, clearly and naturally:

"Why not give me a try? I'm ready."
